

BOOKING CONDITIONS

1. Any deposit paid with the booking form is neither refundable nor transferable.
2. All monies paid after the "balance due" date are not refundable or transferable.
3. Failure to pay any balance by the "balance due" date may result in your booking being cancelled and your accommodation reallocated, with resultant loss of deposit.
4. Any special requirements, such as dietary or access, must be made known at the time of booking, otherwise we cannot guarantee that such requirements can be met upon arrival.
5. We do try, where possible, to book everyone into single rooms. However, some venues may not have sufficient single rooms and you may be asked to either share a twin room or pay a supplement for single occupancy of either a double or twin room.
6. Twin or double rooms may be requested at time of booking but a supplement may be payable for single occupancy.
7. If you are arriving by public transport, you are advised to determine the exact location and distance of the venue from your point of arrival before making a booking.
8. Travel arrangements to and from the venue are not the responsibility of the organisers.
9. Where outings from the venue are arranged, these may require travel by car. If you do not come in a car yourself, you should be able to arrange car sharing up to the limit of places in those vehicles available. However, we cannot guarantee sufficient places, neither is a vehicle owner under any obligation to provide transport.
10. Where you have arranged car sharing for outings, you will be expected to contribute towards the car owner's costs at a rate of 25p per mile, divided by the number (including driver) of occupants in the vehicle.
11. The organisers reserve the right to refuse or cancel a booking from any person.
12. In the event of the organisers refusing to accept the booking, any cheque sent by way of deposit will, upon receipt of a stamped, self-addressed envelope, be returned to the applicant.
13. In the event of the organisers cancelling a booking for reasons other than the event being cancelled, only monies that have not already been committed to paying for accommodation at the venue will be refunded.
14. The organisers will only accept your booking subject to your acceptance of these booking conditions.
15. You are advised to take out your own insurance against possible cancellation due to ill health or other unforeseen circumstances beyond the organisers' control.
16. All activities are undertaken at participants' own risk.
